Prominent Nurse Dies In Hong-Kong, China

NEWTOWN, Aug. 6 — Death has occurred in Hong Kong, China, for Mrs. Margaret Strathie Todd, according to word received here by her brother, Alexander J. Strathie.

It is stated that Mrs. Todd was the first registered nurse in South China. She and her husband, the late Dr. Paul Todd, founded the Todd Memorial Hospital in Canton. Mrs. Todd was interned by the Japanese during the war and was repatriated to this country by exchange in 1943 when she visited her brother here. At the close of the war she returned to Canton at the age of 76 to supervise the hospital. She remained there until last May when the Communist advance forced her to evacuate. An adopted Chinese daughter, Dr. Lois Todd, now is in charge.

Mrs. Todd's birthday was May 12, same as that of Florence Nightingale. Because of her pioneer work in China, nursing groups there honored the two simultaneously on that day.

Eldest of a family of eight, she was one of four sisters who became nurses. Surviving are three sisters, Miss Isabelle Strathie and Miss Jeanie Strathie, executive secretary of District 13 (Manhattan, Bronx, and New York) State Nurses' Association, and Mrs. Arthur Letchworth of Philadelphia; two brothers, George of New Canaan, Conn., and Alexander J. Strathie of Newtown. Three adopted Chinese children also survive. They are Dr. Lois Todd and Jonathan and David Todd. Mrs. Todd was buried in the Christian Cemetery, Hong Kong.

Activities of Interest To All in The Various Communities

GLEANED BY SCRIBES

Boy Scouts of the Carversville troop were hosts on Monday evening at a supper held at the troop camp grounds for their parents and friends.

The program was planned and directed by Scout Lester Pitman, who was assisted by his committee.

The highlight of the meeting was a talk and demonstration on salt and fresh water fishing by Joseph Panoast, sports writer for a Phila. publication. Mr. Panoast is a nationally known authority on fishing.

"The Lake", an oil by J. Arnold Todd, of Pebble Hill, is a painting of the well-known "Todd's Pond" to which all the youngsters in town are invited during "skating weather". Loaned from a private collection, the painting is a well handled study of the many difficult greens of Summer.

The artist is largely self-taught, but has painted for 25 years. He also studied in 1944 at the American Community Night School in Washington, D. C.

It is interesting to note the tiny signature sketch of a "fox-rampant" which has been taken by Mr. Todd from the English coat of arms of the Todd family.

A SUMMARY OF THE NEWS

The eagerly awaited White Paper on China, released yesterday by the State Department, documents in more than 1,000 pages of records the sequence of events that have brought Nationalist China to the brink of complete disaster. The White Paper put the blame for that disaster on the shoulders of the Nationalist leaders, whom it held incapable of ruling. They failed to gain the support of the Chinese people, according to the document.

Secretary of State Acheson denied that a large volume of assistance from the United States might have led to a Nationalist victory in the civil war. He stressed that this nation would oppose the subjection of China to any foreign power and would continue to encourage the development of an independent China. The long-term policy of the United States toward China, he added, will be based on a complete review of United States policy in the Far East to be begun immediately.

The White Paper pointed out that this Government had made grants and credits to the Nationalists totaling $2,007,200,000 since V-J Day in addition to transferring hundreds of millions of dollars' worth of surplus property. United States policy in China was not supported by all the career men in the State

PERKASIE COUNCIL KEEPS WITHIN BUDGET

Financial Statement for The First Six Months of '49 Is Submitted

PETITION TO FIREMEN

PERKASIE, Aug. 6 — Announcement that Perkasio borough council is keeping within its budget in nearly every department was a heartening announcement for local residents. Woodrow Groff is chairman of the finance committee, and has submitted a financial statement for the first six months of 1949.

Council, at the beginning of the year, earmarked $24,200 for highway work, and of this amount $11,634.76 was spent for street improvements the first six months of the year. Street Commissioner Raymond Hager informed Council the major portion of the street work has been completed.

The only department in which more than 50 percent of the amount allocated was spent was in the recreational. This department had been appropriated $1,500, and during the first six months of the year $954.71 was spent. The major portion of this was for the conditioning of the playgrounds for the Summer. Announcement was made that the expenditures in this department will be comparatively light for the remainder of the year.

Presenting his report for the month, Street Commissioner Hager pointed out that he had some difficulty with the application of the oil to the streets during the extremely hot weather. The oil was so thin that much of it ran into the gutters, and carried some of the fine stone with it. Mr. Hager told Council he plans to complete the street improvement program when the weather is cooler.

A committee appointed at the meeting of council last month to get prices on a two-way radio for the police department submitted a report which showed the system can be installed for $1,220. This will include a transmitter that can be operated in a radius of 12 miles.

Council took no action because the local dealer who submitted the bid told the committee Sellersville is interested in the installation of a two-way system, and that if Sellersville does this, both systems can be hooked up with one transmitter. Council is waiting to see what action Sellersville will take.

A petition addressed jointly to Council and Perkasio Fire Company was given consideration. The persons who drew up the petition proposed

Attempts to Cut Wrist, Then Leaps to His Death

TRENTON, N. J., Aug. 6—Failing to cut his wrist to his satisfaction, police state, a local man laid the razor on Chambers street bridge, here, removed his shoes and left them on the bridge, then jumped approximately 35 feet to the Pennsylvania Railroad tracks below and to his death.

The deceased is Phillip Malloy, 40, formerly of Park avenue, here. According to police the deed is attributed to an extreme case of nerves.

It was at 5:45 this morning that a railroad police officer discovered the body on the tracks as he was covering a section near Clinton street station. It was at first thought that Malloy had been struck by a train, but examination of the body proved otherwise. Later his shoes and the razor were found on the Chambers street bridge.

The Nationalist position in China meanwhile deteriorated further. The Nationalist Government announced that it had discovered that some former Nationalist officials had been plotting to surrender all Hunan Province to the advancing Communist armies.

The French proposal for a four-power committee to plan strategy for the common defense of the nations allied under the North Atlantic treaty was reported to have received sympathetic attention from the three United States Chiefs of Staff, who met first with the French Chiefs of Staff and then with the commanders' committee of Western Union nations. A heavy cordon of police and security troops was thrown about the meeting place to guard against a Communist demonstration.

United States, British and French officials were said to be discussing the issue of reducing or ending

Lightning Damages H. S. Chimney; Breaks Panes

CORNWELLS HEIGHTS, Aug. 6 —A bolt of lightning played havoc on Thursday afternoon at the Bensalem township high school, Cornwells Heights.

The lightning struck the chimney on the west end of the building, the upper section of the terra cotta tubing being broken and half of the chimney being scattered over a section of the roof, 30 feet in radius; the other half being severely cracked and leaning.

The bolt apparently followed the chimney to a point below the roof level and shattered a rafter under the roof, "exploding" insulation there.

Fifty window panes in the one portion of the building were broken, these ranging in size from about 14x11 to about 10x13. Plaster in the library wall was also cracked.

APPEAL FOR NEW TOWER FOR YARDLEY BOROUGH

Utility Unable to Finance The Project Costing $150,000

ASKS BOROUGH TO AID

YARDLEY, Aug. 6—A meeting to discuss financing a new water tower was suggested last night in a letter to Borough Council from the Yardley Power & Water Co. The cost of the tower is given as approximately $150,000. The letter requested that council's representative meet with Mark Dowdell to consider the tower plan.

The utility pointed out that it had endeavored to finance the cost of a new tower, approximately $150,000, without success.

F. T. Daugherty of College avenue, presented a bill for a new fire, which he claimed was damaged by deep holes on that street. Council referred the bill to Borough Solicitor Sidney Cadwallader and the insurance company for action.

Roy Hackett, zoning officer, reported a violation of the building code by William J. Engle of 71 S. Main St. He said Engle built a chicken house and run on leased ground behind the Yardley Bleachery, College avenue, without obtaining a building permit. He also overstepped the property line by two feet, Hackett added.

A letter from the State Highway Department disclosed that steps were being taken to install storm drains on N. Main street and that the work would be completed before winter.

Mrs. Charles Boyd, of Maple and Morgan aves., reported that the ditch in the rear of Morgan avenue be cleaned out as the water in it had become stagnant.

GOVERNMENT COTTON

The government has become the not-too-happy owner of about two-thirds of all the raw cotton in the country — an estimated 3,750,000 bales. Producers who had borrowed on their last year's crop, and who had until mid-July 31 to pay off their loans and get their cotton back, decided to let it go. So some $500,000,000 worth of the fibre belongs to the government now.

Worse, the chances are that the government will own still more cotton when the new crop is in. There is said to be enough raw cotton in private hands to meet domestic and foreign demands between now and harvest time, and all signs point to another bumper yield. Since about one-fourth of the 1948 crop turned out to be surplus, part of the 1949 crop presumably will be surplus too. The government will therefore have to buy it up under the price support program.

Relatively speaking, perhaps, the government's position is not bad. It has been worse. In the summer of 1939 the government had 11,000,000 bales in its loan stocks. But it took World War II to solve that problem and another war is not immediately in prospect. To say that the problem is preferable to that kind of a solution is true but it doesn't show the way out of a difficult situation. Obviously something must be done to bring the supply of cotton and the demand for it into better balance.

How to do this? One method used in the past is to impose restrictions to cut down production. But limiting acreage did not work very well because cotton farmers grew more cotton per acre. They are likely to keep on increasing the yield per acre if the price stays high. At the same time, they will fight any attempt to put it lower—and they have a powerful bloc in Washington.

In any case, this is another demonstration of what happens when the government supports prices at high levels and farmers produce not for the market but for government loans.

Chemist announces he has perfected a meatless sandwich. The drugstore girl has been trying to reach that goal for years.

Perhaps Moscow will see signs of a decadent democracy in the fact that the Russian school teacher who jumped out of a consulate window has made $400,000 out of the story.

What will happen when prominent politicians are unable to find anybody else who needs government help?

Despite all efforts to roll back the cost of government, it continues to roll downhill like a snowball.

Don't put off until tomorrow what you can do today. There may be a law against it by that time.

It is still an unanswered question whether the American people like disinflation as well as they did inflation.

One of the best-known bankers in Pennsylvania, Thomas Scott, Bristol, died shortly before one o'clock this afternoon in the Jefferson Hospital, Philadelphia, where he had been a patient since July 26th. Mr. Scott, previous to being hospitalized, had been in ill health at times over a period of years. He was 81 years of age and was at the time of his death president of the board of directors of the Farmers National Bank of Bucks County, here.

Mr. Scott was born in Bristol January 20, 1868, and attended the public schools here, later completing his education at Rittenhouse Academy, Philadelphia. He entered the services of the Farmers National Bank as an office boy when his father, the late Charles E. Scott, was cashier in 1885. Mr. Scott progressed in the banking business step by step, until in 1903 he was elected assistant cashier, and in 1918 was made a member of the board of directors. In 1924 he succeeded his father as cashier of the bank. On January 14, 1947, he was chosen president of the institution.

Mr. Scott lived an active life in the community, serving in many civic and semi-civic organizations here. He had served as a member of town council, burgess, member of the tree commission, and during World War I he organized the "Four Minute Men" of Bristol, and was one of the leaders in each of the Liberty and Victory loan drives.

He served for several years as president of the Bristol Free Library and the Bristol Fish and Game Protective Association; and as treasurer of the Bristol Building Association. He was a past master of Bristol Lodge, No. 25, F. & A. M.; a member of Bristol Lodge, No. 979, Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks; Anchor Yacht Club; and of the Pennsylvania Society of New York. He was for a time president of the Washington Crossing Park Commission. In 1903 Mr. Scott married Miriam Stauffer at Columbia, Lancaster County. Being associated with the banking business for so many years, many people in this community sought his advice.

He took much interest in fishing and hunting, and when health permitted loved to whip the streams and follow the dogs through the woods.

The combined years of service which Mr. Scott and his father gave the Farmers Bank total 129.

Mr. Scott had served as president of the Bucks County Bankers' Association, and had been active in Group 2, Penna. Bankers Ass'n. For many years he was an active member of Bristol Fire Co. No. 1, and at the time of his death was treasurer of the Bristol Consolidated Firemen's Relief Association. He was a staunch Republican, and had

TULLYTOWN PLAYS 2 EXTRA INNINGS TO WIN THE GAME

Tullytown A. C. and Jefferson played two extra innings last evening on Memorial Park field in a Bristol Softball League contest. Tullytown finally won out by a 9-6 score when "Norm" White rapped out a home run with Termenya and Dietzler on base in the ninth.

The victory for the Tullytown boys changed the complex of the league. It put them one and one-half games behind the league-leading Second Ward team and firmly entrenched the Tullytowners in second place. Tullytown has two games remaining on the schedule while Second Ward has three.

Winning hurler of last evening's tilt was Claude "Tiny" Dietzler while the defeat was charged against Buster Monachello. Monachello relieved "Johnny" Ciambella in the fifth inning with Tullytown having a 4-2 lead.

Hits were scarce in the nine-inning fracas with Tullytown having nine and Jefferson, six. White and Dietzler each had two hits for Tullytown while the outstanding blow for the losers was a triple by Albert Ciambella in the sixth which scored two runs. Ciambella was out at the plate trying to stretch the blow into a home run.

THIRD WARD NINE ENTERS PLAYOFFS BY WIN OVER ACES

Third Ward Eagles entered the playoffs of the Bristol Youth League by nosing out Bell's Aces last evening, 5-4, on the Third Ward diamond.

Gene Hansen's two-bagger in the fifth inning accounted for the winning marker. The score was 3-3 when the Eagles came to bat in the last half of the fifth. Curran opened with a hit and stole second. Rinkley popped up. Rolston Stevens singled to left, scoring Curran. Hansen's two-bagger followed and Stevens crossed the plate with what proved to be the winning tally. It was Hansen's second double of the game.

George Ireland was the winning hurler, giving the losing team eight hits. Rigby was the losing twirler. Third Ward had seven hits off his delivery. Ireland struck out six and walked three while Rigby had four strikeouts and two walks. Third Ward left six runners stranded while Bell's had five men left on base.

The losers attempted a rally in the sixth and took advantage of some loose playing to score a run and had the tying run on scoring position when Petrizzi and McHugh failed to come through, the latter fanning.

The first game of the Newportville-Third Ward series will be played tomorrow afternoon on the Bristol Township field.

Included among the permits granted were three for the construction of single dwellings. The others were mostly for repair work.

Property owners to whom permits were granted for the building of houses were Raymond Fluck, H. A. Sutter, and Frank Marcello. Receipts from the parking meters the past month, it was announced, amounted to $792.20. The police department reported having made 23 arrests during the month, and fines imposed amounted to $139.

The police department has purchased a new car to replace one that has been in use about a year. Departmental balances were announced as follows: general fund, $39,112.44; electric light, $35,697.36; water, $14,303.24; sewer rental account, $24,366.28; bond account, $27,195.34, and 1948 sewer fund, $23,187.20.

tested the manner in which the fire siren is sounded every Saturday at noon and every Thursday evening at seven o'clock for testing purposes. An automatic switch is so set that a series of eight blasts at ten-second intervals are sounded. This system, it was pointed out in the petition is very annoying, and suggestion was made by the petitioners that one twenty-second blast be sounded when the siren is undergoing tests. Every member of Council signed the petition, and decided to pass it on to the firemen for action at their meeting on Thursday evening.

Having moved from the First Ward to the Third Ward recently, Lloyd Weisel resigned as president of Council. His removal from one Ward to another makes him ineligible to hold a seat in Council. His successor as president has not been named.

PROSPECTS "GOOD" FOR THE TOMATO YIELD IN BUCKS

"Early Sets" Are Light; But No Blight Has Yet Appeared

DUSTING IS AN AID Majority of Producers Grow Tomatoes On Contract For Canneries

Although tomato production is just getting underway in Bucks County, and "early sets" were rather light, prospects for a better yield later are very good," according to William F. Greenawalt, Bucks County agricultural representative.

Greenawalt says there was not a very good start during the recent hot dry weather, and yield is of course "anybody's guess."

One favorable thing this year, as concerns the tomato crop, is that no blight has yet appeared. This is explained by the fact that weather this summer was not favorable to blight; and also because many growers are dusting and spraying, much of the dusting being carried out by airplane.

The yield last year was up to more than 29 tons to the acre, although the average was considerably below this year. "Last year was a good tomato year," Mr. Greenawalt adds. The height of the tomato season is normally the last week of August and first week of September.

Most of the large producers grow tomatoes on contract for canneries in Trenton and Camden, N. J., and a firm in the Bristol area.

Herman Heston, of Lower Makefield township, has one of the largest tracts in tomatoes in Bucks County, it is stated. In fact, Greenawalt states that one-sixth of Bucks County's tomato acreage is located in Lower Makefield township. Between 3,000 and 4,000 acres in the county are given over to tomato growing.

Every day trucks laden with tomatoes are seen traversing Bucks County highways, bound for the canneries or markets.

Jellied Meat Mold Ideal For Buffets

Summer's a busy time of the year for entertaining. Relatives announce that they're arriving for a visit—old friends in town are an excuse for getting the crowd together—croquet parties and other backyard activities call for buffet suppers on the lawn or screened-in porch.

In summer when appetites wilt as do collars, the food for entertaining should be especially pleasing to the eye. But it should not be so elaborate that it makes a wreck out of the cook. The secret lies in planning attractive dishes which can be prepared well ahead of serving time.

A jellied meat mold is such a dish. Its cool attractiveness is hard to beat on the summer buffet table, yet it's hearty enough to serve as a main dish. Here's a recipe for a jellied ham mold which is unusually delicious. Consomme used as the liquid in the mold gives it rich flavor. Mustard and onion in just the right quantities add to the tastiness, making it a dish you'll want to repeat often for summer suppers or luncheons. (Note: canned chopped ham or canned luncheon meat may be used in place of the ham.)

Jellied Ham Mold

- 3½ cups ground cooked ham
- 2 tablespoons gelatine
- *3 cups consomme
- 1 tablespoon horseradish
- 2 teaspoons prepared mustard
- 1 tablespoon minced onion
- Dash of pepper.

Soak gelatine in a little cold water, if necessary (see package label). Heat consomme and add gelatine, stirring until dissolved. Let cool, then add seasonings. Place in refrigerator; when mixture begins to thicken, stir in ground ham (or ground luncheon meat or canned chopped ham). Pour into mold (loaf pan, ring mold, or decorative mold).

You can talk to one man. Want Ads talk to thousands.

which has been oiled with salad oil or rinsed with cold water. Oiling makes unmolding easier.) Garnish with radish roses and watercress or parsley. (*Use canned consomme diluted with equal parts of water; or use bouillon cubes or meat extract dissolved in water, 1 teaspoon or 1 cube to a cup of hot water.) For a simple buffet supper built around the jellied ham mold, you might serve the following:

- Jellied Ham Mold
- Potato Salad with Chives
- Green Peas with Mushrooms
- Hot Cloverleaf Rolls
- Pickled Peaches or Apricots
- Chiffon Pie or Cake a la Mode with Fruit Sauce

Another favorite jellied meat dish is jellied veal, so popular on the Smorgasbord table. Here's a tested recipe for this good dish:

Jellied Veal Ring

- 1 veal knuckle
- 2 lbs. veal shoulder
- 1 bay leaf
- 2 whole cloves
- 2 teaspoons salt
- ¾ teaspoon pepper
- 3 quarts water
- 1 slice onion
- 1 stalk celery
- 2 teaspoons Worcestershire sauce

Have knuckle cut in 3 or 4 places. Combine knuckle, diced veal shoulder, bay leaf, cloves, salt and pepper in large pan. Add 3 quarts hot water, bring to a boil, reduce heat and simmer, covered, for 2 hours, or until meat falls from bone. Remove bay leaf, veal knuckle and veal. Strain broth from meat and save. Put meat through food chopper (medium blade) with onion and celery. Cook down meat stock until it measures about 2 cups. Add veal and Worcestershire sauce. Grease or oil a ten-inch ring mold. Pack meat mixture into mold and chill until firm.

DOYLESTOWN, Aug. 6 — Henry Carver, well-known County Seat octogenarian and retired attorney, who died at his home left a personal estate of $30,000 and real estate valued at $15,000.

The original will was dated August 21, 1939, and seven codicils have been added to it.

Monetary beneficiaries include a housekeeper, Lela A. Sigafos, $3,000; Martha H. Warg, housekeeper-nurse, $7,000 and William W. Cathers, $2,000.

The rector, church warden and vestrymen of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, in a codicil, dated June 8, 1948, were given a $5,000 trust fund which shall be used for the maintenance of a second cousin, Harry E. Carver.

To provide care for the graves of his family and an aunt, Lucetta McIntosh Saeger, two $300 trusts were created for the benefit of the Doylestown Cemetery Company, respectively.

The testator also stipulated that his real estate should be sold and that the residue of his estate should be disposed of by the executor, Arthur M. Eastburn, according to a deed of trust, dated Aug. 17, 1939.

The widow, Lynda Klopfer, who will inherit two-thirds, and a daughter, Emma S. Blehl, who will inherit one-third, will share the $1700 personal estate of Richard E. Stitzel, Warminster township. Real estate is located at 2542 North 16th st., Phila., and the testator, who made his will Oct. 29, 1942, died June 17. The widow, who lives in Ivyland, was named executrix.

Mrs. Anna T. Coyle, 192 East Oakland ave., here, the widow will inherit the real and personal estate of her husband, George C. Coyle. The will was dated Sept. 18, 1935, and the Doylestown Cemetery Company was bequeathed $100 in trust in the Doylestown Trust Co. to provide care for family graves. The widow was also named executrix.

Letters of administration in the estate of Charles E. Taylor, Morrisville, were granted to the widow, Marie T. Taylor, 319 Bridge st., Morrisville, amounting to a personal estate of $300. The decedent died Dec. 4, 1945, and the heirs are the widow and a son, Paul J. Taylor.

Minot J. Hill, 405 Radcliffe st., Bristol, was granted the letters of administration in the estate of Edith C. Hill, Bristol, amounting to a personal estate of $1,000. The decedent died May 12 and there are no additional heirs.

In the estate of Walter W. Prusse, Buckingham township, Merchant Marine captain, who died June 22, letters of administration were granted to his widow, Rose Prusse, Doylestown RD., amounting to a personal estate of $4,000. The widow and two sons, William and Walter, are the heirs.

Prominent Nurse Dies In Hong-Kong, China

NEWTOWN, Aug. 6 — Death has occurred in Hong Kong, China, for Mrs. Margaret Strathie Todd, according to word received here by her brother, Alexander J. Strathie. It is stated that Mrs. Todd was the first registered nurse in South China. She and her husband, the late Dr. Paul Todd, founded the Todd Memorial Hospital in Canton. Mrs. Todd was interned by the Japanese during the war and was repatriated to this country by exchange in 1943 when she visited her brother here. At the close of the war she returned to Canton at the age of 76 to supervise the hospital. She remained there until last May when the Communist advance forced her to evacuate. An adopted Chinese daughter, Dr. Lois Todd, now is in charge.

Mrs. Todd's birthday was May 12, same as that of Florence Nightingale. Because of her pioneer work in China, nursing groups there honored the two simultaneously on that day.

Elders of a family of eight, she was one of four sisters who became nurses. Surviving are three sisters, Miss Isabelle Strathie and Miss Jeanie Strathie, executive secretary of District 13 (Manhattan, Bronx, and New York) State Nurses' Association, and Mrs. Arthur Letchworth of Philadelphia; two brothers, George of New Canaan, Conn., and Alexander J. Strathie of Newtown. Three adopted Chinese children also survive. They are Dr. Lois Todd and Jonathan and David Todd. Mrs. Todd was buried in the Christian Cemetery, Hong Kong.

HERE AND THERE IN BUCKS COUNTY TOWNS

Activities of Interest To All in The Various Communities

GLEANED BY SCRIBES

Boy Scouts of the Carversville troop were hosts on Monday evening at a supper held at the troop camp grounds for their parents and friends.

The program was planned and directed by Scout Lester Pitman, who was assisted by his committee. The highlight of the meeting was a talk and demonstration on salt and fresh water fishing by Joseph Pancoast, sports writer for a Phila. publication. Mr. Pancoast is a nationally known authority on fishing.

"The Lake," an oil by J. Arnold Todd, of Pebble Hill, is a painting of the well-known "Todd's Pond" to which all the youngsters in town are invited during "skating weather." Loaned from a private collection, the painting is a well handled study of the many difficult greens of Summer.

The artist is largely self-taught, but has painted for 25 years. He also studied in 1944 at the American Community Night School in Washington, D. C.

It is interesting to note the tiny signature sketch of a "fox-rampant" which has been taken by Mr. Todd from the English coat of arms of the Todd family.

A SUMMARY OF THE NEWS

The eagerly awaited White Paper on China, released yesterday by the State Department, related in more than 1,000 pages of documents the sequence of events that have brought Nationalist China to the brink of complete disaster. The White Paper put the blame for that disaster on the shoulders of the Nationalist leaders, whom it held incapable of ruling. They failed to gain the support of the Chinese people, according to the document.

Secretary of State Acheson denied that a large volume of assistance from the United States might have led to a Nationalist victory in the civil war. He stressed that this nation would oppose the subjection of China to any foreign power and would continue to encourage the development of an independent China. The long-term policy of the United States toward China, he added, will be based on a complete review of United States policy in the Far East to be begun immediately.

The White Paper pointed out that this Government had made grants and credits to the Nationalists totaling $2,007,700,000 since V-J Day in addition to transferring hundreds of millions of dollars' worth of surplus property. United States policy in China was not supported by all the career men in the State

Financial Statement for The First Six Months of '49 Is Submitted

PETITION TO FIREMEN

PERKASIE, Aug. 6 — Announcement that Perkasio borough council is keeping within its budget in nearly every department was a heartening announcement for local residents. Woodrow Groff is chairman of the finance committee, and has submitted a financial statement for the first six months of 1949.

Council, at the beginning of the year, earmarked $24,200 for highway work, and of this amount $11,634.76 was spent for street improvements the first six months of the year. Street Commissioner Raymond Hager informed Council the major portion of the street work has been completed.

The only department in which more than 50 percent of the amount allocated was spent was in the recreational. This department had been appropriated $1,500, and during the first six months of the year $954.71 was spent. The major portion of this was for the conditioning of the playgrounds for the Summer. Announcement was made that the expenditures in this department will be comparatively light for the remainder of the year.

Presenting his report for the month, Street Commissioner Hager pointed out that he had some difficulty with the application of the oil to the streets during the extremely hot weather. The oil was so thin that much of it ran into the gutters, and carried some of the fine stone with it. Mr. Hager told Council he plans to complete the street improvement program when the weather is cooler.

A committee appointed at the meeting of council last month to get prices on a two-way radio for the police department submitted a report which showed the system can be installed for $1,220. This will include a transmitter that can be operated in a radius of 12 miles.

Council took no action because the local dealer who submitted the bid told the committee Sellersville is interested in the installation of a two-way system, and that if Sellersville does this, both systems can be hooked up with one transmitter.

Council is waiting to see what action Sellersville will take.

A petition addressed jointly to Council and Perkasio Fire Company was given consideration. The persons who drew up the petition proposed...

Attempts to Cut Wrist, Then Leaps to His Death

TRENTON, N. J., Aug. 6 —Failing to cut his wrist to his satisfaction, police state, a local man laid the razor on Chambers street bridge, here, removed his shoes and left them on the bridge, then jumped approximately 35 feet to the Pennsylvania Railroad tracks below and to his death.

The deceased is Philip Malloy, 46, formerly of Park avenue, here. According to police the deed is attributed to an extreme case of nerves.

It was at 5:45 this morning that a railroad police officer discovered the body on the tracks as he was covering a section near Clinton street station. It was at first thought that Malloy had been struck by a train, but examination of the body proved otherwise. Later his shoes and the razor were found on the Chambers street bridge.

County Physician Dr. Eckstein stated that Malloy probably died of a skull fracture, his head evidently striking the tracks in the leap. Malloy's body was first removed to St. Francis Hospital.

The man is survived by several sisters and brothers, who reside here. Malloy was single.

Lightning Damages H. S. Chimney; Breaks Panes

CORNWELLS HEIGHTS, Aug. 6 —A bolt of lightning played havoc on Thursday afternoon at the Bensalem township high school, Cornwells Heights.

The lightning struck the chimney on the west end of the building, the upper section of the terra cotta tubing being broken and half of the chimney being scattered over a section of the roof, 30 feet in radius; the other half being severely cracked and leaning.

The bolt apparently followed the chimney to a point below the roof level and shattered a rafter under the roof, "exploding" insulation there.

Fifty window panes in the one portion of the building were broken, these ranging in size from about 14x14 to about 19x13. Plaster in the library wall was also cracked.

Utility Unable to Finance The Project Costing $150,000

ASKS BOROUGH TO AID

YARDLEY, Aug. 6 —A meeting to discuss financing a new water tower was suggested last night in a letter to Borough Council from the Yardley Power & Water Co. The cost of the tower is given as approximately $150,000. The letter requested that council's representative meet with Mark Dowdell to consider the tower plan.

The utility pointed out that it had endeavored to finance the cost of a new tower, approximately $150,000, without success.

Main St. He said Engle built a chicken house and run on leased ground behind the Yardley Bleachery, College avenue, without obtaining a building permit. He also overstepped the property line by two feet, Hackett added.

A letter from the State Highway Department disclosed that steps were being taken to install storm drains on N. Main street and that the work would be completed before winter.

GOVERNMENT COTTON

The government has become the not-too-happy owner of about two-thirds of all the raw cotton in the country — an estimated 3,750,000 bales. Producers who had borrowed for their last year's crop, and who had until midnight July 31 to pay off their loans and get their cotton back, decided to let it go. So some $500,000,000 worth of the fibre belongs to the government now.

Worse, the chances are that the government will own still more cotton when the new crop is in. There is said to be enough raw cotton in private hands to meet domestic and foreign demands between now and harvest time, and all signs point to another bumper yield. Since about one-fourth of the 1948 crop turned out to be surplus, part of the 1949 crop presumably will be surplus too. The government will therefore have to buy it up under the price support program.

Relatively speaking, perhaps, the government's position is not bad. It has been worse. In the summer of 1939 the government had 11,000,000 bales in its loan stocks. But it took World War II to solve that problem and another war is not immediately in prospect. To say that the problem is preferable to that kind of a solution is true but it doesn't show the way out of a difficult situation. Obviously something must be done to bring the supply of cotton and the demand for it into better balance.

How to do this? One method used in the past is to impose restrictions to cut down production. But limiting acreage did not work very well because cotton farmers grew more cotton per acre. They are likely to keep on increasing the yield per acre if the price stays high. At the same time, they will fight any attempt to put it lower—and they have a powerful bloc in Washington.

In any case, this is another demonstration of what happens when the government supports prices at high levels and farmers produce not for the market but for government loans.

Chemist announces he has perfected a meatless sandwich. The drugstore girl has been trying to reach that goal for years.

Perhaps Moscow will see signs of a decadent democracy in the fact that the Russian school teacher who jumped out of a consulate window has made $40,000 out of the story.

What will happen when promising politicians are unable to find anybody else who needs government help?

Despite all efforts to roll back the cost of government, it continues to roll downhill like a snowball.

Don't put off until tomorrow what you can do today. There may be a law against it by that time.

It is still an unanswered question whether the American people like disinflation as well as they did inflation.

TULLYTOWN PLAYS 2 EXTRA INNINGS TO WIN THE GAME

Tullytown A. C. and Jefferson played two extra innings last evening on Memorial Park field in a Bristol Softball League contest. Tullytown finally won by a 9-6 score when "Norm" White rapped out a home run with Termenya and Dietzler on base in the ninth.

The victory for the Tullytown boys changed the complexion of the league. It put them one and one-half games behind the league-leading Second Ward team and firmly entrenched the Tullytowners in second place. Tullytown has two games remaining on the schedule while Second Ward has three.

Winning hurler of last evening's tilt was Claude "Tiny" Dietzler while the defeat was charged against Buster Monachello. Monachello relieved "Johnny" Ciambella in the fifth inning with Tullytown having a 4-2 lead.

Hits were scarce in the nine-inning fracas with Tullytown having nine and Jefferson, six. White and Dietzler each had two hits for Tullytown while the outstanding blow for the losers was a triple by Albert Ciambella in the sixth which scored two runs. Ciambella was out at the plate trying to stretch the blow into a home run.

The "Saints" have won their last five contests in the Trenton loop, the skin carrying them from third to first place.

McGERR, LEIGHTON WIN HONORS ON SUBURBAN MOUND

"Norm" Vetter, West Bristol, chalked up five wins while losing three and Earl Wagner, of the first half champions, won three and lost two. Wagner was also involved in a tie game.

THIRD WARD NINE ENTERS PLAYOFFS BY WIN OVER ACES

Third Ward Eagles entered the playoffs of the Bristol Youth League by nailing out Bell's Aces last evening, 5-4, on the Third Ward diamond.

Gene Hansen's two-bagger in the fifth inning accounted for the winning marker. The score was 3-3 when the Eagles came to bat in the last half of the fifth. Curran opened with a hit and stole second. Binkley popped up. Rolston Stevens singled to left, scoring Curran. Hansen's two-bagger followed and Stevens crossed the plate with what proved to be the winning tally.

It was Hansen's second double of the game. George Ireland was the winning hurler, giving the losing team eight hits. Rigby was the losing twirler. Third Ward had seven hits off his delivery. Ireland struck out six and walked three while Rigby had four strikeouts and two walks. Third Ward left six runners stranded while Bell's had five men left on base.

The losers attempted a rally in the sixth and took advantage of some loose playing to score a run and had the tying run on scoring position when Petrizzi and McHugh failed to come through, the latter failing.

The first game of the Newportville-Third Ward series will be played tomorrow afternoon on the Bristol Township field.

tested the manner in which the fire siren is sounded every Saturday at noon and every Thursday evening at seven o'clock for testing purposes. An automatic switch is so set that a series of eight blasts at ten-second intervals are sounded. This system, it was pointed out in the petition, is very annoying, and suggestion was made by the petitioners that one twenty-second blast be sounded when the siren is undergoing tests. Every member of Council signed the petition, and decided to pass it on to the firemen for action at their meeting on Thursday evening.

Having moved from the First Ward to the Third Ward recently, Lloyd Weiss resigned as president of Council. His removal from one Ward to another makes him ineligible to hold a seat in Council. His successor as president has not been named.

PROSPECTS "GOOD" FOR THE TOMATO YIELD IN BUCKS

"Early Sets" Are Light; But No Blight Has Yet Appeared

DUSTING IS AN AID Majority of Producers Grow Tomatoes On Contract For Canneries

Although tomato production is just getting underway in Bucks County, and "early sets" were rather light, prospects for a better yield later are very good," according to William F. Greenawalt, Bucks County agricultural representative.

Greenawalt says there was not a very good start during the recent hot, dry weather, and yield is of course "anybody's guess."

One favorable thing this year, as concerns the tomato crop, is that no blight has yet appeared. This is explained by the fact that weather this summer was not favorable to blight, and also because many growers are dusting and spraying, much of the dusting being carried out by airplane.

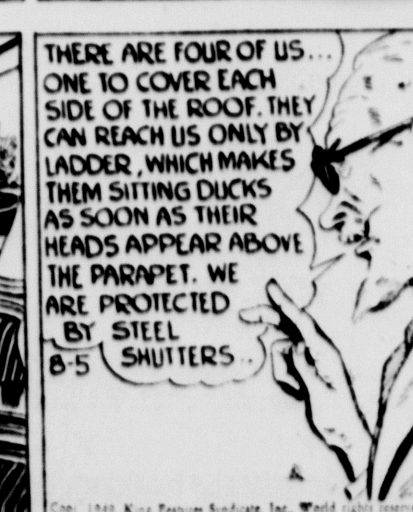

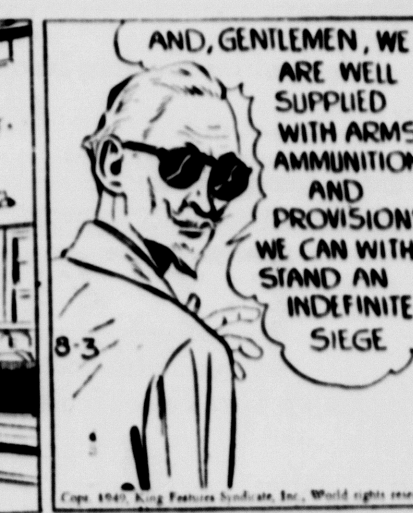

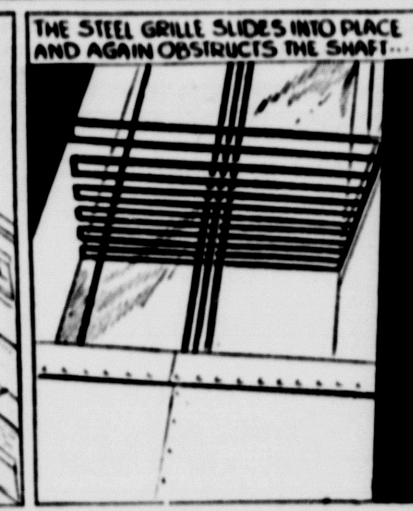

The yield last year was up to more than 20 tons to the acre, although the average was considerably below this year. "Last year was a good tomato year," Mr. Greenawalt adds. The height of the tomato season is normally the last week of August and first week of September.

Most of the large producers grow tomatoes on contract for canneries in Trenton and Camden, N. J., and a firm in the Bristol area.

Herman Heston, of Lower Makefield township, has one of the largest tracts in tomatoes in Bucks County, it is stated. In fact, Greenawalt states that one-sixth of Bucks County's tomato acreage is located in Lower Makefield township. Between 3,000 and 4,000 acres in the county are given over to tomato growing.

Mr. Lewis pointed out that it is very important that all students interested in enrolling in specific classes do so early during the registration period, since the number of students applying for specific courses determines whether or not the courses will be given.

Jellied Meat Mold Ideal For Buffets

Summer's a busy time of the year for entertaining. Relatives announce that they're arriving for a visit—old friends in town are an excuse for getting the crowd together—croquet parties and other backyard activities call for buffet suppers on the lawn or screened-in porch.

In summer when appetites wilt as do collars, the food for entertaining should be especially pleasing to the eye. But it should not be so elaborate that it makes a wreck out of the cook. The secret lies in planning attractive dishes which can be prepared well ahead of serving time.

A jellied meat mold is such a dish. Its cool attractiveness is hard to beat on the summer buffet table, yet it's hearty enough to serve as a main dish. Here's a recipe for a jellied ham mold which is unusually delicious. Consomme used as the liquid in the mold gives it rich flavor. Mustard and onion in just the right quantities add to the tastiness, making it a dish you'll want to repeat often for summer suppers or luncheons. (Note: canned chopped ham or canned luncheon meat may be used in place of the ham.)

Jellied Ham Mold
3½ cups ground cooked ham
2 tablespoons gelatine
*3 cups consomme
1 tablespoon horseradish
2 teaspoons prepared mustard
1 tablespoon minced onion
Dash of pepper.

Soak gelatine in a little cold water, if necessary (see package label). Heat consomme and add gelatine, stirring until dissolved. Let cool, then add seasonings. Place in refrigerator; when mixture begins to thicken, stir in ground ham (or ground luncheon meat or canned chopped ham). Pour into mold (loaf pan, ring mold, or decorative mold).
